President’s Letter

By Raleigh Wolfe

Wow! The months continue to roll by with incredible speed. It seems like only yesterday that I was preparing the October newsletter for our club.

October was a noteworthy month for our club. We selected the inaugural Mylinda Cane Creative Photographer Award recipient. Jackie Huppenthal was the recipient of the award for her imaginative and creative image. Congratulations Jackie for an image well made. Jackie will be presented with the award during our holiday dinner in December.

Our November program will be presented by club member Jim Rettker. Jim has presented previously and his programs are always interesting and informative and quite helpful in extending our photography skill sets.

We continue to have well attended mentoring groups and they are proving to be helpful to all who attend. Dave will send out an email regarding the subject area for the November meeting in a few days.

Our competition meeting will be on November 26, 2019. Last month’s meeting proved to be one of our best meetings for competition and the quality of image making. Continue the good work everyone.

Lastly, remember that December is the month for our holiday dinner which will occur on December 10, 2019. We will also present Jackie with the Mylinda Cane Award at the dinner.

November is a month of Thanksgiving so please remember to be mindful of all that we have to be thankful for.
